ANN McCARTNEY JOINS ENTERPRISE BANK & TRUST AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-PRIVATE BANKER

PHOENIX, November 28, 2011 Enterprise Bank & Trust, the banking subsidiary of Enterprise Financial Services Corp (NASDAQ: EFSC), named Ann McCartney Senior Vice President of Private Banking in its North Scottsdale office.

McCartney has over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry. Previously, she was a Principal of a significant commercial mortgage company that was sold to GMAC in 1999.

Julian Fruhling, President of Private Banking for Enterprise, said “Ann’s depth of financial knowledge, her experience, and her background will be a tremendous asset to Enterprise and our private banking organization in Arizona. I’m delighted that she’s agreed to join our growing company.”

McCartney holds a B.S. from Arizona State University and an M.B.A. from the renowned Thunderbird School of Global Management. She is also a commercial-rated pilot and certified flight instructor. Ann and her husband Michael reside in Scottsdale.

Enterprise Financial operates commercial banking and wealth management businesses in metropolitan St. Louis, Kansas City and Phoenix. Enterprise is primarily focused on serving the needs of privately held businesses, their owner families, executives and professionals.
