

For more information contact:

Jerry Mueller, Senior Vice President (314) 512-7251
Amanda Clark, Sturges Word Communications (816) 221-7500

JEFF V. FRIESEN JOINS ENTERPRISE BANK & TRUST AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, RELATIONSHIP MANAGER

KANSAS CITY, November 22, 2011 Enterprise Bank & Trust, a subsidiary of Enterprise Financial Services Corp (NASDAQ: EFSC), recently announced that Jeff V. Friesen has joined the company as Senior Vice President, Relationship Manager with responsibility for overseeing current clients' business and personal banking needs and generating new commercial loan relationships.

Prior to joining Enterprise Bank & Trust, Friesen accumulated over seventeen years of commercial lending experience at Railroad Savings Bank, Commercial Federal Bank, Hillcrest Bank, and Security Bank—all in the Kansas City area.

Brian Hoban, President of the Bank's Plaza location said "We are excited that Jeff has agreed to join our commercial banking team. He has been financing Kansas City's entrepreneurs and their businesses for over seventeen years. Jeff's experience in this field will be an asset to our commercial loan portfolio."

Friesen conducted undergraduate studies at the University of Kansas where he earned a B.S. in Business Administration. Friesen is also a graduate of Leadership Olathe.

Enterprise Financial operates commercial banking and wealth management businesses in metropolitan St. Louis, Kansas City and Phoenix. Enterprise is primarily focused on serving the needs of privately held businesses, their owner families, executives and professionals.

###